In response to the applicants remarks dated 07/05/2007.

Applicants claim language of: wherein the thigh cuff is to be worn around the wearer's thigh so that when worn solely around the wearer's thigh the thigh cuff is inhibited from moving toward the pelvic girdle under the tensile forces generated by the elastic cables on the thigh cuff, is considered as indefinite.

The phrase "so that when worn" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention.

The applicant is not positively claiming that the device is being worn. As to the device performing the claimed function of inhibiting moving the examiner fails to see where applicant has claimed any specific elements or features of the device, which would perform this function and avoid the disclosed features of the prior art of Euro-Med. Euro-Med discloses a cuff as claimed by the applicant. Applicant can not read limitations into the claims, which are dependent on the orientation of a user's body a user body, is not part of the claims.

Claims 3 and 11-20 are allowed.

Claims 9 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3764

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 6 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Downs.

Claims 1-6 are rejected for the same reasons as set forth in the Office Action of 04/04/07.

Claims 1-2 and 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Adeli suit Euro Med.

Claims 1-2 and 4-8 are rejected for the same reasons as set forth in the office action of 04/04/2007.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
